The remote cottage on the Missouri river provides the perfect escape: small, picturesque, and lonely. There, Shane becomes fascinated with the history of the cottage, and that of its larger sister property, the Riverhouse, now demolished. Inspired, he embarks on an unusual art project, one that almost seems to have a life of its own.

The Riverhouse by G. Norman Lippert - Goodreads

I decided to read The Riverhouse after finding Mr. G. Norman Lippert's wonderful fan fiction, James Potter and the Hall of Elder's Crossing. I so enjoyed Mr. Lippert's take on JK Rowling's wizarding world I wanted to see how something he had gotten published would stand up. I was not disappointed!
